

Cline Duff

Becomers Mystery Person of the week - November 26, 2006

Opens charge account at candy store at age 4.

Teenage model at large department store's annual fashion show.

Popular guy with girls in high school.

Uses his trumpet to earn money in Salvation Army Band street band during Christmas, dance band in college, racetrack bugler at nearby track in Kentucky.

Graduates with degree in Business (so he can open bigger and better charge accounts!)

Uses music skills to get into Army Band, for two year stint.

Marries high school sweetheart.

Moves family to California in 1959 for career in sales. Switches to stockbroker in 1969.

Has active and happy life and career playing tennis three times weekly, blowing his horn in large band every week, restoring old cars, flying a plane.

Loves his family, adores his two grown daughters and four grandsons and they adore him.