

Jim McDonald

Becomer's Mystery Person of the week - August 20, 2011

Childhood:

Only Child. Raised by Mother, Grand Mother, Aunt and Uncle

Theatrical Family, Mother and her sisters were members of the original Radio City Rockets. Lou Costello and his wife lived with us. Friends of Larry Fine of the Three Stooges, Don Lamond and Jack Narz.

Education:

FCC first class engineering licenses

Bachelors Degree in Physical Chemistry

Graduate of the McDonnell Douglas Executive Management Program

Teaching:

Radio Operational Engineering School

Columbia University Trade School

Glendale Collage

University of California State Los Angeles and Northridge Campus

University of California Executive Management Programs at UCLA and Irvine.

University of Missouri

Bucket List:

BE A CHRISTIAN

Criminal Back Ground:

Arrested at 14 for shooting at Sheriffs office window

Arrested at 16 for 90 mph in a 25 mile zone after winning the Saugus Drag

Racing for Stock Class at 83mph.

Spent one and a half years in an out of the Lompoc Federal Prison

Military:

28 years with the Air Force land half active 26 + active reserves

Hobbies:

Photography and Travel

Victories:

Sandy

Family

Students I have taught that have gone on to great achievements

Professional Experience;

Multiple assignments for the State Department

Patents - two and technical papers - 18

Major Disappointment:

Not able to implement an Alzheimer Program that we had designed, had funded.